Insurrections in the Celestial Empire-The troubles between England and China-Opening the Empire to European Civilization-The progress of Republicanism. The splendid clippership Samuel Russell, Captain N. B. Palmer, arrived yesterday morning from Canton, whence she sailed on the 5th of February last, thus performing the passage in eighty-three days. . . According to the extracts which we make from the Friend of China, there appears to be a possibility of the trouble between England and China leading to actual war.

The condition of the Celestial Empire seems to be revolutionary; insurrections are breaking out in the interior of the country; the financial resources of the government are in the greatest disorder. In this state of things, another war with England will throw Chine in to European civilization, and, perhaps, the present rapid progress of liberalism ughout the world, to republicanism. We live in an age of progress. Who can al S. Barclay. ell what a day may bring forth?

We find the following quite interesting Currie, daughter of Mr. Malcolm Currie. and singular passage in the letter of the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun. who writes under date of Washington, April

A remarkable prediction as to the succed. garet I. Mallett, daughter of the late Peter J. Malsion to the Presidency, was made by Mr. Polk lett, of Fayetteville. N. C. during the second term of Gen'l Jackson's ad ministration. He mentioned to Bishop Polk, who has since related the fact, that Mr. Van Buren was to be elected and serve for two terms, after Gen'l Jackson; that Mr. Benton was then to be elected for one term; and that he (Mr. Polk) would succeed Mr. Benton, for one term. When Mr. Polk heard of his nomnation, he expressed no surprise. When some his success. He never doubted his election for a moment—while Mr. Clay, upon hearing the nomination of Mr. Polk, exclaimed.

Mr. Polk was not, in all particulars, ophet, but he came near enough to the mar entitle him to consideration as a political secr. Perhaps he can answer the question, "who will be the next President?"

The following is the paragraph from the letter referred to above : "My health is very fast improving. I procured a few days ago some of Dr. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and they have acted on my system like magic!
